Day 1 | North American Cities — Taipei

Depart from your local North American airport and board an international flight to Taipei. Meals: On your own

Day 2 | Arrival in Taipei (Lunch)

Arrive at Taiwan Taoyuan International Airport in the morning, where you will be met by a local representative. Visit the National Palace Museum, the century-old Japanese-style wooden Xinbeitou Historic Station, the Beitou Hot Spring Museum, and Thermal Valley. Enjoy exterior views of Sun Yat-sen Memorial Hall and Taipei 101; admission to the Taipei 101 Observatory is not included. In the evening, you are free to visit Taipei's famous Shilin Night Market. Hotel: The Grand Hotel Taipei or a similar five-star hotel

Day 3 | Taipei (Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner)

After breakfast, visit Yehliu Geopark and admire its unique coastal rock formations. Continue to the picturesque mountain town of Jiufen, followed by Shifen Waterfall, Taiwan's largest curtain-style waterfall, and Shifen Station. Hotel: The Grand Hotel Taipei or a similar five-star hotel

Day 4 | Taipei — Beijing (Breakfast)

After breakfast, take a flight to Beijing, China's historic imperial capital with more than 3,000 years of history. Upon arrival, you will be met at the airport and transferred to your hotel for check-in. Hotel: Crowne Plaza Beijing or a similar five-star hotel

Day 5 | Beijing (Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner)

Beijing is the capital of China. After breakfast, visit Tiananmen Square, followed by the magnificent Forbidden City, with its imperial palaces and royal red walls. For centuries, this vast complex was reserved exclusively for the imperial family. Today, it is recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. After the visit, enjoy lunch at a local restaurant. In the afternoon, visit another UNESCO World Heritage Site — the Temple of Heaven, where Chinese emperors once prayed to heaven for abundant harvests. In the evening, enjoy a special welcome dinner featuring Beijing's famous Peking duck. Hotel: Crowne Plaza Beijing or a similar five-star hotel

Day 6 | Beijing (Breakfast / Lunch)

After breakfast, visit one of the world's most iconic historic landmarks — the Great Wall of China. Recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site, this extraordinary structure was built and expanded between the 5th century BC and the 16th century, extending approximately 4,000 miles. In the afternoon, return to Beijing and visit the National Stadium, better known as the Bird's Nest, which served as the main venue for the 2008 Beijing Olympic Games. Enjoy an exterior visit and take memorable photographs. Hotel: Crowne Plaza Beijing or a similar five-star hotel

Day 7 | Beijing — Xi'an (Breakfast / Lunch)

After breakfast, explore Beijing's historic old city. Travel through the traditional hutongs by rickshaw, experience the unique atmosphere of old Beijing, visit a local family still living in this historic neighbourhood, and see a beautifully preserved traditional courtyard residence. After lunch, take a flight to Xi'an. With more than 3,000 years of history, Xi'an is one of China's oldest cities. It is known as the starting point of the ancient Silk Road and served as the capital of several of China's greatest dynasties. Hotel: Renaissance Xi'an Hotel or a similar five-star hotel

Day 8 | Xi'an (Breakfast / Lunch)

After breakfast, visit the magnificent Terracotta Warriors, widely regarded as the "Eighth Wonder of the World." Inside the enormous burial complex of Qin Shi Huang, China's first emperor, you will see approximately 8,000 life-sized terracotta soldiers that were buried with him more than 2,000 years ago. This remarkable archaeological site showcases the impressive military power and artistic achievements of ancient China. In the afternoon, return to downtown Xi'an and visit the iconic Giant Wild Goose Pagoda Square. Optional Evening Activity: Dumpling banquet and Tang Dynasty-style imperial music and dance performance — US$70 per person. Hotel: Renaissance Xi'an Hotel or a similar five-star hotel

Day 9 | Xi'an — Shanghai (Breakfast / Dinner)

After breakfast, take a flight to Shanghai. Upon arrival, visit the City God Temple in historic Old Shanghai, followed by Nanjing Road, one of the city's main shopping streets and one of the busiest and most famous commercial streets in the world. Afterwards, stroll along Shanghai's iconic Bund. Optional Evening Activity: Huangpu River cruise and Shanghai night tour — US$45 per person. Hotel:

Renaissance Shanghai Hotel or a similar five-star hotel

Day 10 | Shanghai — Suzhou — Shanghai (Breakfast / Lunch)

After breakfast, travel by coach to Suzhou, one of China's most renowned garden cities. Upon arrival, visit the Lingering Garden, one of the finest examples of classical Chinese garden design. Continue to a silk exhibition centre to learn about Suzhou's traditional silk culture and production techniques. Afterwards, stroll along historic Shantang Street. Return to Shanghai by coach in the afternoon. Hotel: Renaissance Shanghai Hotel or a similar five-star hotel

Day 11 | Shanghai — Guilin (Breakfast / Dinner)

After breakfast, take a flight from Shanghai to Guilin. Guilin takes its name from the abundance of fragrant osmanthus trees found throughout the region, with its name meaning "forest of sweet osmanthus."

Internationally renowned for its extraordinary karst landscapes, Guilin is one of China's most popular travel destinations and is celebrated in the famous saying:

"Guilin's scenery is the finest under heaven."

Hotel: Grand Bravo Guilin Hotel or a similar five-star hotel

Day 12 | Guilin — Yangshuo (Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner)

After breakfast, visit the Dong Ethnic Cultural Park to learn about the traditional culture and customs of one of China's ethnic minority communities. Afterwards, travel by coach to the picturesque town of Yangshuo. Upon arrival, enjoy a bamboo raft trip on the Li River. The Li River winds between the mountains like a green ribbon, while its clear waters reflect the surrounding peaks and beautiful landscapes. In the afternoon, visit historic West Street and a local ethnic minority village. Optional Evening Activity: Impression Liu Sanjie, a spectacular outdoor music and dance performance staged against the natural landscape — US$60 per person. Hotel: New West Street International Hotel Guilin or a similar hotel

Day 13 | Yangshuo — Guilin (Breakfast / Lunch)

After breakfast, return to Guilin by coach.

Upon arrival, visit a tea plantation surrounded by Guilin's famous karst mountains. Learn about different varieties of
